

Blood collection system, 8/13:89

Sarstedt's S-Monovette blood collection system enables a gentle aspiration draw with no sample transfer. It reduces hemolysis rates, which are particularly high in emergency departments, by as much as 10-fold, thereby reducing potentially erroneous test results and timely recollections. Engineered safety features protect health care workers and patients, and small needle components can reduce sharps waste by 80 percent.

Sarstedt, 800-257-5101