CAP offers white paper on lab interoperability

The College of American Pathologists has released a white paper, "Laboratory Interoperability Best Practices." The CAP Diagnostic Intelligence and Health Information Technology (DIHIT) Committee developed the paper to provide pathologists and laboratory professionals with a concise overview of 10 common issues to consider when establishing and maintaining laboratory interfaces, along with approaches for issue mitigation.

More CAP TODAY Recommends