Feb. 24, 2026—Exa Capital has acquired StaffReady, an SaaS platform for managing clinical workforces in health care. The platform supports hospital ancillary departments such as laboratories, pharmacies, physical therapy, rehab, and support services as well as standalone bioscience, pharmaceutical, and commercial laboratory test design corporations. It enables health care organizations to streamline compliance, staff scheduling, inspection preparation, and workforce readiness.

“For nearly three decades, our focus has been on helping health care teams address some of their toughest operational challenges related to staff scheduling, compliance, and inspection readiness,” John Janzen, founder and CTO of StaffReady, said in a press statement. “With Exa’s strategic and operational support, we’re positioned to scale our impact while continuing to serve our customers with the same dedication they expect.”

StaffReady will continue to operate independently, and its existing leadership team will remain in place and will leverage Exa Capital’s resources and expertise to support long-term growth.
