

Liquichek AMH Control

July 2018—Bio-Rad Laboratories has launched its Liquichek AMH Control for reproductive health testing. Liquichek AMH Control is a liquid, assayed, human serum-based quality control with clinically relevant levels for monitoring the precision of anti-müllerian hormone. The company's Unity Interlaboratory program can help manage QC data by providing access to peer group comparisons.

Bio-Rad, 510-724-7000

