

Siemens, NKF enter strategic alliance, 5/14

May 2014—Siemens Healthcare and the National Kidney Foundation entered into a strategic alliance to increase awareness of the importance of albumin-to-creatinine ratio testing in high-risk individuals, with the goal of improving diagnosis and identifying kidney disease early in its course. Siemens and NKF will also help put the new clinical recommendations into practice.

Siemens Healthcare, 914-524-2844