

Ultrasensitive assays, 7/16

July 2016—Aushon BioSystems has launched the Ciraplex Ultra Ultrasensitive Assays with femtogram/milliliter level detection to address multiple biomarkers in a wide range of therapeutic areas. The kits are designed to offer enhanced sensitivity and an extended dynamic range providing quantification below standard. Cira software streamlines the data management process, aiming to provide exceptional data control.

Aushon BioSystems, 978-436-6400